

The Place Where

Feelings Come To Rest

When you've found the 1. to weather the storm,
And jealousy softens to 2. safe and warm,
When you're 3. as your volcano explodes,
And you sit with your sadness till 4. gently unloads,
When 5. is buzzing wild and free,
And 6. settles softly like waves in the sea,
When 7. wraps around you and won't let you go,
And 8. helps you learn and helps kindness grow,
When 9. nudges you to discover something new,
And failure says "10. , " I believe in you,
When you feel embarrassed but 11. arrives,
And loneliness whispers but 12. survives.
